Two Days Workshop on Women Entrepreneurship and vocational Training for underprivileged Rural Women

Two Days Workshop on Women Entrepreneurship and vocational Training for underprivileged Rural Women Conducted by Mohamed Sathak Engineering College in collaboration with Indian Overseas Bank on 25th Feb 2015 and 26th Feb 2015.

This Programme helped them a step further, so that they could do things on their own and earn their bread. With the vocational training, women can get economically empowered even when they do not have any proper job. They can start their own businesses, they can make and sell things from home, they can get jobs in manufacturing units, etc.

The experts were invited to train the rural women in manufacturing of Handicrafts using Palm Products, Phenyle, Napthalene Balls, etc.

Workshop on "Crime against women"

On 14th Sep 2015 Mohamed Sathak Engineering College conducted Workshop on "Crime against women". Mr. Murugasan DSP, Tamil Nadu Police, Kilakarai invited as a Chief guest for this function. He addressed that Violence against women and children are a serious public health concern, with costs at multiple levels of society. Although violence is a threat to everyone, women and children are particularly susceptible to victimization because they often have fewer rights or lack appropriate means of protection.

Two Days Workshop on Women Entrepreneurship and vocational Training for underprivileged Rural Women

Two Days Workshop on Women Entrepreneurship and vocational Training for underprivileged Rural Women Conducted by Mohamed Sathak Engineering College in collaboration with Mohamed Sathak Polytechnic College on 19th July 2016 and 20th July 2016.

This programme aimed to provide vocation training to women who are unable to complete their studies or do not get proper jobs or lack in skills, which lead to their deteriorating financial condition, they are dependent on others or they are unable to support their families. By providing vocational training to the girls and women, This Programme helped them a step further, so that they could do things on their own and earn their bread. With the vocational training, women can get economically empowered even when they do not have any proper job. They can start their businesses, they can make and sell things from home, they can get jobs in manufacturing units, etc.

The rural women were given training on manufacturing of Handicrafts using palm Products by the field experts. It could help them to start their own venture on Cap Manufacturing, Palm Leaf Baskets, etc.

Two Days Workshop on Women Entrepreneurship and vocational Training for underprivileged Rural Women

Two Days Workshop on Women Entrepreneurship and vocational Training for underprivileged Rural Women Conducted by Mohamed sathak Engineering College in collaboration with Indian Overseas Bank on 7th Aug 2017 and 8th Aug 2017.

This programme aimed to provide vocation training to women who are unable to complete their studies or do not get proper jobs or lack in skills, which lead to their deteriorating financial condition, they are dependent on others or they are unable to support their families. By providing vocational training to the girls and women, This Programme helped them a step further, so that they could do things on their own and earn their bread. With the vocational training, women can get economically empowered even when they do not have any proper job. They can start their businesses, they can make and sell things from home, they can get jobs in manufacturing units, etc.

The experts were invited to train the rural women to manufacture naphthalene balls, Phenyle, etc..
